BIG CUT IN OIL PRICES

ANOTHER SLUMP MAKES TOTAL DECLINE OF ONE THIRD SINCE JANUARY 1.

Since the article below was written, oil has taken another drop of 25c, making Somerset $2.50 and Somerset Light $2.75. Some oil men are expressing the fear that it will drop 50 cents more before the decline stops. The wages of drillers tool dressers and teams are being cut from one-fourth to one-third.

1000 strings of tools were shut down in Oklahoma last week. Drillers from there are already finding their way to this field. Jobs are getting scarce.

On last Friday the low Soap Purchasing Agency, the Standard Oil Company's buying department made another cut in the price of crude oil. This time it was 75 cents per barrel on Somerset and Somerset Light the two grades produced in Kentucky. There had been three declines previously of 25 cents each. This makes the price of Somerset Light from $4.00 to $3.25 and Somerset from $4.25 to $3.50.

This big decline is stopping a lot of work that can be stopped in Kentucky. Oil men are not drilling. Wages are dropping. Work cut will soon be at a standstill.

The reports sent out from Lexington, Ky. to the daily press each week are "extremely optimistic." The article under date of February 8 says the declines in oil will have no effect on development work in Kentucky.

Overproduction The Cause.

A Lubbock, Ohio, report gives the following reasons as to the decline of prices:

During the war, and even as late as last summer, it was stated that the oil country had been kept in a boom, but it would soon be at a time when demand was at its height. The decline of industry taken together with the fact that thousands of people who bought motor cars during the period of high wages have since either sold them or stopped running them, has brought a fearful reduction in the amount of refined products being used. How much of this is due to seasonal conditions cannot be estimated, but the winter has been so open in the United States that cars ordinarily laid up in the full months have been kept running, and it would seem at a time when demand was at its height. The decline of industry taken together with the fact that thousands of people who bought motor cars during the period of high wages have since either sold them or stopped running them, has brought a fearful reduction in the amount of refined products being used. How much of this is due to seasonal conditions cannot be estimated, but the winter has been so open in the United States that cars ordinarily laid up in the full months have been kept running, and it would seem at a time when demand was at its height.

In this latter country field reports show that there was an actual gain in production of over 43,000 barrels in North Louisiana, as compared with December. In the oil districts of the Gulf coast there was an actual gain of 66,000 barrels for the same period.

Every Field Affected.

The drop in prices of crude started the first of the year and has now penetrated every field in the United States and in Canada. While the decline in percentage is shows very low, the fall in the number of barrels of oil produced in the United States has been 43 per cent, the latest decline noted in oil runs around 6 per cent and a small fraction. In general the drop in gasoline is running 2 1/2 to 3 cents.

Triennial Oil Report For Kentucky

The NEWS is in receipt of a Triennial Report gotten out by E. L. Lammie, Secretary of Kentucky Oil Men's Association, which is very interesting from the fact that it shows the production in Kentucky for the years 1918-1919-1920. He says that figures were not available however prior to April 1, 1918. Therefore he only shows nine months of that year, which shows a total of 3,441,620.48 barrels of oil produced in the state for the eight months which sold for $8,366,422.83, while 1919 shows a total production of 9,226,472.49 barrels which sold for $24,459,016.74, but the bumper year was 1920 from the real point of interest. While it was about six hundred seventy thousand barrels short of 1919 in the number of barrels, it makes up for it in dollars and cents. The total amount of money received for the production of oil in 1920 was $32,566,241.53.

In this report Lawrence county plays her part. In April 1917, this county produced 5,924.76 barrels which sold for $15,402.00. During the nine months of 1918 Lawrence county produced 52,060.82 barrels which sold for the sum of $137,955.00. In 1919 the county produced 94,592.41 barrels of oil which sold for $260,024.00, while in 1920 she produced 217,077.54 barrels which sold for $880,451.44.

All the oil producing counties of the Big Sandy show a good gain.

DR. FUGITT IN FLORIDA.

Dr. W. W. Fugitt writes from St. Petersburg, Florida, January 31, as follows:

We are having a beautiful winter season in the land of Sunshine and Flowers—so the lowest temperature we have here is 60 degrees. "Skinned a mile." It snowed there last Sunday. We have fully 40,000 tourists this winter.

YOUNG HUSBAND IS SOUGHT BY TWO WIVES

Winchester, Ky.—Two women, one a Richmond, Ky., girl and the other a beautiful young Creole from New Orleans, each claiming to be the wife of George Little of Winchester and Jackson, Ky., came to the office of County Attorney H. H. Moore and asked that he help them find their husband. The Richmond girl, who was Miss Mary Hopper, swore to a warrant charging bigamy, which was placed in the hands of the Sheriff. She married Little, she said, in February, 1920, in Richmond. The Creole woman, who said she married Little in 1918 when Little was a soldier, refused to prosecute, saying that she loved him and all she wanted was her husband.

Wife No. 1 who gave her name as Camilla Little, said that when her husband's letters from Kentucky became infrequent, she followed, found him at Jackson, remained with him three days, but lost him again when he left Saturday. The Creole girl then came to Richmond and found wife No. 2 there, she said.

SLAYER'S TRIAL DELAYED; KILLED SON, SHOT FATHER

Salisbury, Ky., Feb. 5.—The opening trial of William Gillmore, 35 years old, charged with killing his brother-in-law, Fred White, 27, and possibly fatally wounding his father-in-law, Mr. White, 50, was continued here today until next week.

The shooting, which occurred January 23, was due to a dispute over land.

Gillmore was captured in Morgan county three days later. Two revolvers were taken from him. He is in jail here.

N. & W. WILL SPEND MILLIONS ON IMPROVEMENTS

Nearly $18,000,000 is being spent by the Norfolk & Western Railway Company for improvements on its lines, including the opening of 26,000 acres of new coal lands in West Virginia, the electrification of piers at Norfolk, the building of 1,000 120-ton coal cars and many modernizations counting on increased economy.

ROAD IN JUNCTION CASE DELAYED

The injunction suit brought by D. L. Thompson to prevent the expenditure of any bond money on the Mayo Road was heard by Judge A. S. Cisco at Ashland last Sunday. Thompson was assisted in the case by attorneys Wm. & Howerton, of Ashland, and H. W. Christie of Louisa. The other side was represented by Attorney General Dawson of Frankfort and A. J. Garrett, M. S. Bums and John W. Woods.

Attorney A. J. May of Floyd county was present because of the interest of the upper valley in seeing the road built.

A large number of Lawrence county citizens and several from Boyd county were in attendance.

After the case was presented and all papers filed the plaintiff was given five days in which to file a brief. This was requested on the ground that the death of Mr. Wm. Christie, father-in-law, last week had prevented him from getting ready for the trial.

Since that Judge Cisco's mother-in-law has died and he has gone to the funeral and will not get back until after expiration of the five days. However, the delay will probably be no more than two or three days in having a decision.

Washington, Feb. 9.—Federal aid funds available for contract for road construction in Kentucky on January 1 amounted to $2,979,384. It was learned at the Federal Bureau of Roads today. Of this amount officials said $1,500,000 will be put under contract before April 1, leaving $1,479,384 of Federal aid funds available for new contracts at that date.

NOTICE TO VOLUNTEERS IN THE WORLD WAR

Every Lawrence county man who volunteered for service in the world war is requested to send his name and address to Mrs. G. R. Vinton, Louisa, Ky. Please do this at once.

OIL MAN LOCATES HERE.

Norwood P. Johnson, of Pittsburgh, arrived in Louisa Tuesday with his wife and they have taken rooms at the residence of Mrs. Mary Horton. They were married on Monday. Mr. Johnson is a son of one of the chief stockholders in the Cumberland Petroleum Company, having large holdings in that section of Kentucky. The young man is here to help look after these interests.

PLANING MILL AND BUILDING COMPANY

A NEW ENTERPRISE TO BE ESTABLISHED IN LOUISA VERY SOON.

An enterprise of much promise and importance is being promoted for Louisa and has progressed far enough that its accomplishment seems assured.

It is a mill for working building material to order. Also, the firm will contract for the erection of buildings, furnishing everything required. Lumber will be bought in the region in large quantities and worked as required by the demands.

The company has contracted for the purchase of the property recently sold by Mrs. Olga Chapman to Harvey Harding. It is adjacent to the U. & D. railroad and just below the freight depot and is convenient to a side track.

The plans have been worked out in detail for a business that will reach out through both the Tug and Levisa valleys. Louisa has many advantages as a shipping point. It is rather remarkable that the opening for this enterprise has not been taken advantage of.

We are not at liberty just now to mention the names of the men at the head of this business, but will say that they have had the experience necessary to make the business go. The organization is well balanced. Most of the work has already been subscribed and the firm will be lost in starting the business.

CLEANING UP KNOTT COUNTY MOONSHINERS

Louis, Ky., February 5.—Life is not for the moonshiner in Knott county. Sheriff Andrew Combs today reported to Governor Edwin P. Morrow. Sheriff Combs reported that since January 1, 1918, he had destroyed 64 moonshine stills, 578 barrels or more of moonshine, 19,170 gallons of beer or mash, 27 still "worms," 288 gallons of singling, 10 bushels of malt corn and 16 guns.

"We have the shiners about cleaned out," said Combs.

STATE TREASURY BALANCE GIVEN AS $4,279,106

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—The balance in the State Treasury at the close of business January 31 was $4,279,106.84, as follows: General expenditures fund, $2,015,371.63; school fund, $1,384,355.35; road fund, $709,719.50; sinking fund, $89,723.78; University of Kentucky, $51,789.67; Eastern State Normal, $18,528.45; Western State Normal, $18,528.45.

Outstanding interest bearing warrants January 31, $5,900,862.57; outstanding December 31, $6,522,766.68. Of the outstanding warrants $1,161,594.74 are against the school fund.

85 COUNTIES INCREASE LEVY BY $73,952,227

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 4.—A net increase of $73,952,227 in the assessments is shown in the recapitulation sheets sent to by County Tax Commissioners of eighty-five of the 120 counties.

The assessment this year is on a basis of 90 per cent of the fair cash value, a horizontal raise of a little less than 5 per cent which each county must show unless there is an actual diminution in total wealth.

As the assessments per acre had not been raised to the abnormal prices at which land sold for the last three years it is not believed at the State Tax Commission office that the slump in land values will materially, if at all, affect the assessed valuation when it is equalized.

BOARD EMPHASIZES DANGER OF RABIES

Persons Bitten By Dogs That Have Acted Suspiciously Should Guard Against Disease.

Louisville, Ky., February 2.—As a result of examinations of four dogs' heads sent the Laboratory of the State Board of Health during January, every one of which was found to be that of an animal that had been suffering with rabies when killed, the State Board of Health has issued a general warning against that disease.

The four heads which were sent in came from Elkton, Todd-co.; Paris, Bourbon-co.; Alexandria, Campbell-co.; and Sturgis, Union-co. These animals all had acted suspiciously and all had bitten human beings, who will avert the terrible consequences of being bitten by the promptness with which they acted in having the heads examined and in taking the Pasteur treatment.

The State Board of Health's warning emphasizes the fact that every person who has been bitten by a dog that has acted suspiciously should kill the animal immediately and send its head to the State Board of Health for examination. If the examination shows the dog had rabies the Pasteur treatment should be taken as quickly as the serum can be procured. If the treatment is begun in time rabies can be avoided readily enough, but if the treatment is too long delayed or entirely neglected the person may develop the disease, which has death as its certain culmination.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Snyder, who are at Hot Springs Arkansas, for the benefit of the latter's health, are enjoying their stay there.

WEST VIRGINIAN IS CHOICE FOR COMMISSIONER

Washington, February 4.—If Senators Howard Carter and Davis Elkins, of West Virginia, will present the name of a man of undoubted ability and unquestioned integrity, President-elect Warren G. Harding will be strongly inclined to appoint him to be United States Commissioner of Internal Revenue, it is said.

The man that Senator Elkins has in mind, and who, in his opinion, rises up to the presidential appraisal, is former Governor A. H. White, of Parkersburg. It is well understood by Elkins, an exceedingly desirous of obtaining a desirable berth for the former Governor and it is said that Senator Sutherland has indicated that he will join his colleague in urging the appointment.

The obstacle to carrying out this program is that Governor White insists upon being named to the Collectorship of Internal Revenue for West Virginia or nothing. He and Samuel Logan, also of Parkersburg, are rival leaders and rival aspirants for this place and the contest has developed into a bitter factional quarrel. Should the former permit his name to be presented for the higher office both West Virginians will have a traditional dispute will have been avoided, the leaders say.

SEEK AGREEMENT AS TO TRAIN SERVICE

Frankfort, Feb. 4.—The Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce is backing a plan to bring together officials of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad and representatives of Louisville, which is asking for a night train, Lexington, which wants a Pikeville sleeper, Ashland, which demands a parlor and buffet car, and Winchester, which is understood not to be entirely satisfied with the Louisville sleeper plan. Fayetteville itself wants a new station and J. E. Harrison, superintendent of the division, appearing before the State Railroad Commission yesterday, said that the roads intend to make needed improvements as soon as the money is available.

JURY TO HEAR MATEWAN MURDERS

Williamson, W. Va., Feb. 9.—The Matewan battle trial will actually get under way tomorrow. This conclusion was reached late this afternoon after a jury of twelve men had been chosen to try twenty-one mountaineers charged with the killing of Albert C. Fields, in the Matewan fight. Worey and seven by the strain of the past two weeks. Judge R. D. Bailey rushed to completion the tentative panel of twenty men and demanded that the surplus be struck immediately in order that the first witness could be placed upon the stand.

Only one union man was retained on the jury after the state had exercised its right of eliminating two jurors and the defense six.

The Jury.

The juryman selected were: John Farley, Thomas Maggard, Everett Musick, Mose Workman and Wyatt Belcher, farmers; Thomas Chapman and Julius Hall, school teachers; Jas. Belcher, employee of a telephone company; Clarence C. Irson, electrician; J. M. Robinson, laborer; J. B. Massey, railroad brakeman; and Frank Ford, sawmill worker. Massey is the only union man on the list.

CIRCUIT COURT IS GRINDING

LAWRENCE COUNTY REGULAR TERM OPENED LAST MONDAY BY JUDGE CISCO.

The Lawrence Circuit Court was called to order last Monday by Judge A. S. Cisco, who instructed the grand jury and organized the court. The judge's mother-in-law died at his home at Grayson and he left for that place Monday afternoon. The body was taken to West Liberty for burial.

The bar unanimously elected attorney G. W. Castle to serve as special judge and he is expediting the business. 125 cases were disposed of the first day.

The 40s indictments made at the last court for failure to secure license taxes for dogs brought a large crowd to court the first day or two. The fact developed that a considerable number of these parties had paid the tax, some within the time fixed by law, and others before the indictments were made.

A test case is to be made of the latter class and will be taken to the Appellate court. Some cases in which service was not obtained were continued. 24 cases were tried and a fine of $10 in each case was inflicted.

Commonwealth's Attorney John M. Wanch is on the job.

The juries are made up as follows:

Grand Jury: E. F. Freese, foreman; Theodore Kinner, A. J. Parker, Hara Bradley, Jack Bryan, Garfield Adams, Cole Sparks, Payton Blackburn, Zach Deemy, M. G. Berry, John Morris, Lane Moore.

Petit Jury: J. P. Walter, Winfield Vinson, J. J. McChire, B. H. Roberts, Jeff Chandler, H. S. Young, D. M. 5,000,000 IN CHINA VERGING ON STARVATION, U. S. IS TOLD

Washington.—The famine situation in China has reached such a crisis that 5,000,000 persons may die unless immediate help is given, according to information received by the State Department.

Another famine equally severe may arise next fall unless food is made available to the Chinese farmers, who presently are unable to undertake the spring plowing, a statement issued by the department, said.

These Chinese are doing all in their power to relieve the situation, the statement added, and it is estimated that $5,000,000 will be obtained for relief by surcharges imposed on the railway, telegraphic and postal services. Red cross funds amounting to $1,000,000 will help 35,000 persons for 200 days, it was said.

Official reports, the statement said, show that every economy is being practiced in administering and distributing relief.

All Records for Corn Crop Broken

Washington, February 5.—Nineteen hundred and twenty was the greatest corn year in the history of the country, according to the records of the Department of Agriculture. Besides growing a record crop of 3,232,367,000 bushels, the farmers established a new record for average yield an acre, with 30.9 bushels, the second time in history that the country's average yield went past 30 bushels.

The area planted to corn last year was 104,601,000 acres, which was smaller than the area planted in eight other years heretofore, and 1,400,000 acres smaller than the area which produced the previous record crop of 3,124,746,000 bushels in 1912. Last year's crop was the third to exceed 3,000,000,000 bushels.

Iowa, the country's greatest corn-producing state, made an average of 46 bushels to the acre for the first time in its history. The highest average acre yield of any state was that of Vermont, with 47 bushels. Maine, in 1919, had the highest average acre yield, with 60 bushels. In the 10 years previous to that year the highest average acre-yield has been made by one of the New England States. Connecticut had highest yield in six of the ten years.

Massachusetts in two, New Hampshire in one and Vermont and Massachusetts tying in one.

Prater, West Virginia, and Frank Chester Prater, Flemingsburg.

WOMAN LOSES ARM IN SAVING HUSBAND

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 4.—A woman, it has been proved, will give up her life for one she loves.

The latest demonstration of this, news of which reached here today, is the case of Mrs. Ota Mitchell, 20 years old, who lives at First creek, Perry-co. James Mitchell, her husband, became intoxicated on hootlegged whiskey. He did not come home, and his wife set out to look for him. Finally she found him. In his drunken maneuverings Mitchell had stretched out between the rails of a railroad and had gone to sleep.

A train came around a curve and born rapidly toward him. Mrs. Mitchell rushed to her husband and began tugging at his body. The engineer saw her and frantically tried to stop the train. Mrs. Mitchell realized she could not save her husband and herself, so she placed her own body between Mitchell and the train. With a last despairing push she rolled her husband's body over the rail to safety, but it was too late to save herself.

The engine pilot struck her, dragging her partly under the wheels and mangling her right arm so badly that it had to be amputated.

Mrs. Mitchell is in a serious condition from her injuries and the strain she underwent in sacrificing herself for her husband, who was not hurt.

WHAT IS CAUSING KENTUCKY FIRES?

Five Year Total of 419,038,989 Shown To Be Largely Preventable. Public Cooperation Necessary.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters through its Actuarial Bureau has just completed a five year analysis figures, now for the first time made of the fire losses for Kentucky. These public reveal in a startling way the price which is paid by the State for public ignorance and carelessness in the matter of fire hazard. They are drawn from an exhaustive study of approximately 32,000 different fires actually reported upon by the insurance companies, and to the figures presented it is estimated that 25 per cent should be added to cover fires not reported to the Actuarial Bureau.

The causes are classified into three groups, of which twelve are listed as strictly preventable with a total of $4,741,715 or 24.9 per cent of the whole; nine are designated partly preventable and total $7,492,334 or 33.4 per cent of the whole, and beyond these are the unknown causes totalling $6,804,940 or 33.7 per cent. These unknown causes may be considered as probably largely preventable, since, if known, they would be distributed among the other causes.

YOU don't use as much of Calumet as you do of most other Baking Powders. It has more than ordinary leavening strength. You save about half.

You don't pay a big price for Calumet. It's sold at a moderate price—that represents another saving.

You don't feel uncertain as to results. Baking never fails—because Calumet never fails—the proven standard of "Best by Test."

It possesses the highest quality ever put into a Baking Powder. Contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by United States Food Authorities.

For weeks, for months, it keeps as fresh and full of strength as the day it left the Calumet Factories, the World's Largest, most Sanitary and Modern Baking Powder plants.

It is important that you use only straight wheat flour (not self-rising flour) and pure baking powder if you wish to obtain the golden demanded by sound health.

HOT, DIZZY FEELING

Atlanta Lady's Uncomfortable and Annoying Condition Relieved, She Says, by Cardui.

Atlanta, Ga.—Miss Allee Frances Young, of 28 East Alexander Street, this city, says: "After entering womanhood, I suffered so much with womanly weakness. My back ached, I would have, at certain times, a hot feeling that seemed to go to my head. Even my shoulders would hurt, and it made me very dizzy and uncomfortable. When the blood would flow to my head—I suppose that was what it was—I would faint and feel so weak. 'I couldn't do my work. I had a good position, and this was surely annoying as well as embarrassing. I would usually have to go home and go to bed. I certainly suffered greatly. I heard of Cardui, and my mother bought it for me. It was the first and only medicine that ever did me any good for this trouble.'"

Dizziness, headache, sideache, backache, tired-out feeling and other disagreeable symptoms are often signs of womanly troubles. Thousands of women who formerly suffered from these and similar ailments have found Cardui a very valuable remedy.

Cardui is composed of pure, vegetable ingredients which have long been recognized as of medicinal value in the treatment of many diseases and disorders peculiar to women.

Take Cardui.

Your druggist sells it. NO-110

OBITUARY

James M. Frasher, youngest son of Captain Oliver M. and Eda Frasher, was born May 18, 1880. He departed this life January 21, 1921, aged 40 years, 8 months and 3 days. He was married to Mary Frances Mann, the daughter of John Mann, December 23, 1905. To this union were born six children. One is dead, five living. Ulysses G., a little baby, gone to the glory land; Rozella, 13, Dovie May, 10, Edgar, 9, Robert, 5, Mary Elizabeth, 11 months old. Also three sisters and three brothers and many dear friends to mourn the loss of a good friend. His 3 sisters are Mrs. S. G. Queen, Mrs. Harry Nalley and Mrs. Matt Bostie. Brothers, M. C. Frasher, C. A. Frasher and F. G. Frasher.

The writer has known little Jim Frasher from early childhood and to know him was to love him. While on his death bed he made peace with God and said the Lord had promised him a home and in his last moments he said "the Lord is with me now."

Weep not, dear wife, children, sisters, brothers, friends and neighbors. He is not dead only to this life. He has crossed the last river, freed the last storm, topped the last mountain, and on the captured battlements of God's love he can shout home at last. He was a member of I. O. O. F. 343, Dennis. Also, a member of Big Blaine Encampment No. 43, I. O. O. F., of Fallsburg. They took charge of the funeral. Funeral was preached by Rev. R. H. Cassidy, after which committal services were held at old Mount Nebo cemetery and there consigned to the narrow limits of the grave where sleep the remains of grandfather, grandmother, father, mother and one sister, here to sleep until the trump of God awakes their sleeping dust when they will come up in a glorified form and have a part in the first resurrection on which the second death hath no power.

God bless the mourning relatives. You have our sympathy. We know what it is to give up dear loved ones though heaven has gained by our loss. They can not come back to us, but we can go to them.

ADAM HARMAN.

BEGINNING THE DAY

"I AM A MAN begins the day in a good humor," observed the professor, "everything will prosper with him."

"You talk as though beginning the day in a good humor was as easy as falling off a log," said the boy-frowned man. "I suppose you have been reading one of those four sunshine books, and you think a man can be in a good humor just by saying he is going to be. But a man can't control his humors any more than he can control dreams."

"Some days I feel like the old-laid Sunny Sam-uel, and I just naturally go around shedding light into the dark places, and making everybody glad. At such times the world seems an unquelled success, and the fact that I was born into it does not cause me any remorse. If some prominent citizen backed up against a fence and asked me what made me feel so gay, I couldn't give him any helpful information. I don't know, myself, what causes the chipper feeling. I suppose it must be because my works are in good condition, doing their digestive stunts at the old stand."

"After a few days the glad feeling passes away, and instead of being a Sunny Samuel I become a Mountain Moses. I have all kinds of presentiments of evil. I have a firm conviction that the bottom is about to drop out of everything, and that I'll be mixed up with the wreckage. I take a pessimistic view of everything, and go grumbling around until even the cows are sick of seeing me, and they give me a lift with their hind feet as a gentle hint that I should come out of my trance."

"If a leading business man asked me to explain my melancholy I wouldn't do it. The world seems to be moving along as though nothing had happened, the same old sun is shining on the day shift, and the scented zephyrs are blowing through my whiskers as of old."

"Often a man begins the day wrong through some accident or unpleasant experience. Then he knows why he has a grouse, but that doesn't help him to get rid of it. This morning I was lying in bed dreaming that I was the only original white hope, and that I was making a heroic effort to bring the laurels back to the Camellian race. I was just administering an uppercut that seemed destined to bring home the bacon, when I felt out of bed and practically ruined my head against the floor."

"I came downstairs in a beastly humor, and after breakfast I went over and picked a quarrel with old Doc-Little, so that he had to shin up a tree to escape violence, and all because I was feeling ornery. It wouldn't have been safe for any man to tell me in order to begin the day right all a man has to do is to begin it right."

"I have gone out from the house to milk the cows in the morning, many a time, feeling as listless and glad as a daisy, and quite satisfied that the day was going to be one round of pleasure. Then a cow would give me a poke in the ribs with one of her celluloid horns, or push her big splay foot into a brimming bucket of milk, and the joyous stuff was all off, and I'd be so sore all day that Aunt Jolly would hand me my meals with a pitchfork."

"The other morning I got up feeling so mean that I was ashamed to look in the mirror. I went downtown after breakfast, in the mood to rob a blind organ grinder of his few plucked nickels. Then I went to the post office and got a registered letter. A man who had owed me $2 for five years had an ingraving conscience at last, and sent the money to me. When I left the post office everybody commented on my winning smile and said I was the little sunbeam of the town."

Twins Strangely Linked.

Albert Grubson and Walter Grubson, St. Louis twins, were members of the same company, and each wore a small diamond ring and a watch and chain in France. Albert lost the stone of his ring and a few days later Walter lost the stone of his. Then Albert lost his watch and chain and soon afterward Walter's disappeared. Then Albert was wounded and Walter followed suit. And now they intend to marry twin sisters, Geraldine and Blendine Smalley of Sheldon, Ill.—Indianapolis News.

All Depends.

"Can you support my daughter in the style she's been accustomed to?" asked the father of the young man who sought his daughter in marriage. "Well," replied the young man thoughtfully, "is she strong for a $500 baby grand piano or a $5 talking machine?"

A Good Wish.

Candidate—Election day is also my birthday. Friend—Good! I hope you will have many happy returns.

WENDLING CLIMBS PRISON WALLS

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 4 S. Joseph Wendling, serving a life sentence for the murder of 8-year-old Alma Kellner December 8, 1909, in the basement of St. John's Roman Catholic Church, Louisville, where he was janitor, has been leaving the State penitentiary at night to seek about Frankfort and presumably visit a woman friend. It was discovered here last night when he was caught returning to his cell after an evening of liberty.

With the discovery of the prisoner's periods of absence, effort was being made to connect him with the mysterious black veiled woman who has appeared on the streets of Frankfort during last week.

The prisoner had a pink kimono in his possession when he was caught returning to the penitentiary by means of a rope ladder and is believed while outside the prison to have masqueraded as a woman.

Where Wendling obtained the ladder he used in scaling the wall and how often he has been out at night and returned to the prison has not been revealed by prison authorities. It is known, however, that he has been out before. He is said to have made a confession, but its contents have not been divulged.

Operates Prison Movie Machine.

Wendling's absence was detected last night when he failed to go to his cell following a picture show in the chapel in which he operated the motion picture machine. An alarm was sounded by Assistant State's Attorney George Hicks and search was made way when guards on the wall reported his capture as he was climbing back into the prison enclosure after an absence of several hours.

Wendling escaped from the prison last August 27, 1919, and was given a year. He had been in a woman's cell in the State penitentiary at Louisville, where he was known to have been in the company of a woman.

Wendling was taken to the State penitentiary at Louisville, where he was held in the cell of a woman. He was taken to the penitentiary at Louisville, where he was held in the cell of a woman. He was taken to the penitentiary at Louisville, where he was held in the cell of a woman.

Gone Several Days Once

Several days ago Wendling was taken to the penitentiary at Louisville, where he was held in the cell of a woman. He was taken to the penitentiary at Louisville, where he was held in the cell of a woman. He was taken to the penitentiary at Louisville, where he was held in the cell of a woman.

When he made his first getaway from the prison Wendling was in the company of Mrs. W. D. Dyer, a woman who was believed to be his lover. It was believed that at least Mrs. Dyer was having an affair with him and that he was expected to find her small daughter alone. Another theory was that he planned to steal Mr. Dyer's clothes and use them in a disguise to escape in his flight.

Mrs. Dyer had received a letter from Wendling to call at the office to receive pay for shirts she had made. The note was signed S. H. Marshall. It was said to correspond with Wendling's handwriting. Guards and Frankfort county officers searched Frankfort and surrounding country several days before the fugitive was captured.

Girl Murdered in Church.

The crime in which Wendling was concerned to take imprisonment was one of the worst in the criminal annals of Louisville. Alma Kellner, daughter of Fred Kellner and cousin of Frank Felt, left her home December 8, 1909, for a hairdressing service in a companion of the International Convention of the Sevens church. She was never seen alive again.

The case was a mystery until her body was found under the north door of the church the following May 30. A search was then begun for Wendling, who left his place at the church a month after the child was murdered. He was traced on a trip from Hopson, Tex., to San Francisco by former chief of detective John P. Varney and captured July 29, 1910. He was sentenced to life imprisonment December of the same year.

You will have plenty of rich, red blood and feel stronger.

Pepto-Mangan has been building red blood for years. Physicians prescribe it right along. It has just the ingredients that starved blood needs. Sold in liquid and tablet form. Both have the same effect. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gude's" and be sure that the full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package. Advertisement.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

A COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE AT EVENING TIDE.

Which One?

But one
Will sit by a bed with a tender tear
And kiss a hand
Growing cool as it feels the life
And a whole world
Dying where one

One of us alone
But one
Will stand by the other's side
And look and weep
While the mother's eyes
One keeps
Daring, which one?

One of us alone
But one
By an open grave will drop a tear
And homeward go
The anguish of an unshared grief to know
Daring, which one?
One of us alone
But one
My little life may find its home
I'm glad we do not know
Which one

Keeping To One Thing.

We earnestly entreat every young man after he has chosen his vocation, to stick to it. Don't leave it because hard blows are to be struck or disagreeable work performed.

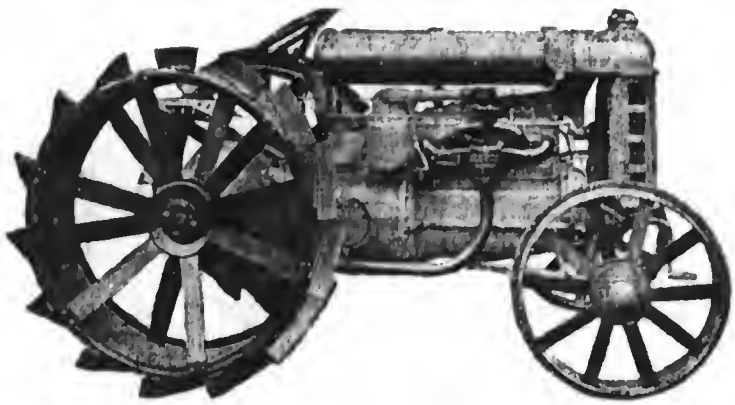

Those who have worked their way up to wealth and usefulness do not belong to the shiftless and unstable class, but may be reckoned among such as pulled off their coats, rolled up their sleeves, completed their production against labor and manfully bore the heat and burden of the day.

Whether upon the old farm, where our fathers toiled diligently, striving to bring the soil to productivity, in the machine shop or factory, or the thousand other business places that invite honest toil and skill, let the motto ever be: Perseverance and industry. Stick to one thing, boys and you will have success.

With a woman's consent a man may have a legal right to possess a wife, but it is very questionable if, in the absence of love, he has any moral right to possess her. Love alone, by God's blessing, will bring success.

It is a pity that many of our people do not realize that they have it within their power to give to their children the strongest weapon against the world's temptations. That weapon is the memory of a happy home and childhood. No amount of preaching or teaching is going to give them the same as a home and childhood. Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Announcement

Mr. Edsel B. Ford, President of the Ford Motor Company, gives out the following statement:

"The price of the FORDSON Tractor has been reduced from $790.00 to $625.00, effective immediately.

"This price change has been made possible through lower costs of materials and the fact that we are now located in our new Tractor Plant with greatly increased economic manufacturing facilities in immediate connection with our foundry and machine shops and large blast furnaces where iron is poured directly from the ore, giving us maximum efficiency with the power to reduce cost of production, and down comes the prices in line with our policy to market our products at the lowest possible figure without in any way affecting our high standard of quality.

"We are particularly pleased in being able to bring about this big reduction in price at this time because the farmer needs all the help we can give him and this big cut in price will be the means of placing a valuable power unit within the reach of practically every one of them, not to mention industrial and commercial concerns which likewise have benefited through its use and are already realizing, to a much greater extent, its value as a power and hauling unit. But particularly has the FORDSON Tractor proved a most valuable factor in the saving of farm labor, at the same time increasing the per-acre crop yield, as well as making possible a utilization of previously uncultivated land, to say nothing of removing no end of drudgery.

"There is no question that the use of machine power on the farm is the greatest advancement made in the development of agriculture, not only in money-saving and money-making results, as well as raising the standards of living on the farm to a much higher level, but because of its proved value in making every type of land more productive, and consequently our desire to place the FORDSON within the reach of all.

There is no change in the present
Ford car and truck prices

which are already at the lowest possible figure, and now with rock bottom reached on the tractor price a further reduction in price of either Car, Truck or Tractor is out of the question; in fact, the big price cuts have been made in anticipation of continuous maximum production, and if a large volume of new business is not obtained. Therefore, present prices of Ford products cannot be guaranteed against possible increases."

Increases may be necessary before long

Ask for the book, "The Fordson at Work," which will be supplied free of cost. Let us demonstrate the value of the Fordson on your farm, in your factory, lumber yard, coal yard or in any general hauling or power work you have to do, and let us have your order for a Fordson.

DR. HENRY E. DOSKER.

NOT only from a humanitarian standpoint but in view of the serious situation faced by America in the Orient, it would be wise to cement the friendship between the United States and China, in the opinion of the Rev. Dr. Henry E. Dosker, a member of the faculty of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Louisville. Dr. Dosker, who served as a missionary in Japan and also in China, make an urgent appeal for funds for the 40,000,000 starving Chinese in the famine stricken provinces north of the Yellow river.

He has been in this territory and says he is not surprised at the report of the American Minister at Peking, which states that 15,000,000 of the inhabitants are subsisting on dry leaves, wild plants and tree bark and the death rate from starvation now is 15,000 a day with a typhus epidemic seemingly inevitable.

DR. WHITTAKER TO RUN AGAIN.
The chin is made by the friends of Dr. J. D. Dr. Winnes' Retrial Is Set for April 15

Harlan, Ky., Feb. 4. Making a final plea that jurors should not allow personal feeling to interfere with their interpretation of the testimony presented in court Judge W. T. Davis sent talesmen back to the jury room here today to continue their deliberations in the case of Dr. H. C. Winnes, charged with the murder of Lavinia Parsons.

When court convened Judge Davis summoned the jury to the court room, and asked if an agreement was in sight.

James Clanton, of the jury, responded that "it is difficult to reach an agreement when one man allows personal feeling to overrule the testimony presented in a trial."

"You can't say that of me, if I'm the man you're referring to," Mose Brown, the juror reported to be standing out against his eleven colleagues, retorted.

Judge Davis spoke to the twelve men for nearly half an hour urging them to subordinate personal opinion and decide the Winnes case on the basis of testimony only.

The jurors retired to their room and in a few moments the sound of loud voices was drowned by the din of a scuffle.

The judge sent the sheriff into the jury room to subdue the belligerents. The sheriff having restored peace, returned to the court room with word that two of the jury men had engaged in a bodily conflict.

Harlan, Ky. The jury trying Dr. H. C. Winnes for the murder of Miss Lavinia Parsons was discharged Friday after the lone juror who for four days and nights clung to his stand for conviction, threatened with knife drawn to do violence to any juror who persisted in fighting with him. It was at 2:10 o'clock when the jurors were dismissed. Before 3 o'clock the fatigued developments followed in quick succession.

Judge Davis overruled a motion for a mistrial, and ordered the indictment to be returned. The two who were engaged in the conflict were taken to the hospital.
